Connect with industry leaders, access exclusive events, industry reports, and more.

Membership in this organization is open to all individuals, corporations and/or other businesses, which support the organization and its goals, and have paid their annual dues.

CIASF offers a wide range of opportunities to meet and connect the region's most powerful players and dealmakers in the marketplace. Members build new relationships that help advance their business, as well as exchange ideas and market insight. Member benefits include:

- Discounted tickets to our outstanding meetings, presentations, and social events. The CIASF is noted for its outstanding and informative meetings. Not only is there ample opportunity to network with other members, the information presented in the meetings is difficult to get elsewhere.
- Special access to "Member Only" networking events.
- New member spotlights during events and online.
- Haves & Wants Forum Access – Join the conversation and participate in our discussion forum featuring a variety of useful and trending topics from the industry.
- Membership Directory
- Online Job Postings – Members can post information regarding job openings on the website and receive responses confidentially.
- Leadership Development – We also welcome members to become active committee members and to take up leadership positions within CIASF.
